

In Hungary the amendment of law on probation activities during the state of emergency because of the coronavirus epidemic is in progress at the moment. The amendment aims to allow probation officers to avoid personal contact with the clients of Probation Service during the implementation and choose electronical methods of communication. If these amendments enter into force the Ministry of Justice (that responsible for the professional operation of local probation services) will promote the work of the probation officers with professional guidance.