

List of possible Topics – Call for Papers - Juvenile and young adult offenders Workshop

Deadline for submission 15th of September 2020

1. Diversion services

- What juveniles and young adult specific services are required? Are they age appropriate?

2. Restorative approach vs punitive approach

- Why to consider restorative justice when dealing with juveniles and young adult offenders?

3. Managing transfer process from juvenile to adult offenders' agencies

- Planning engagement of young adults and their support system? Transition from Youth Services to adult probation and the necessary support for young adult offenders?

4. Early planning through the gate service

- Resettlement plans and how early to start planning the release? Through the gate service?

5. Enabling desistance from crime i.e. New self-identity

- How to support juveniles and young offenders in coming out from the criminal justice process? How to support to stop offending? Accommodation, jobs, education and relationships?

6. Internet

- Social media and young offenders? Cybercrime and juveniles and young offenders?

7. Filial-parental violence

- How to develop effective interventions in a context of domestic violence?

8. Brain maturation in youth and adolescence

- Possible effects on delinquent behaviour?

9. What works to reduce juvenile and young adult offending?

10. Health promotion for young adult offenders

- Availability of health promotion activities? Importance of different health promotion activities? Health promotion programmes?

11. Evaluation of Juveniles and Young adult offenders' institutions