

ACCOMMODATION

The venue of the International Criminal Justice Summer Course will be once more the Centre for Legal Studies and Specialised Training (CEJFE) which is located in C/ Pau Claris 158, within walking distance from the city centre.

Accommodation is not included in the fee as participants are expected to make their own accommodation arrangements themselves.

There are many accommodation options in Barcelona but please, note that July is the high season. In what follows you can find a list of some of the hotels that are situated near the venue grouped into 3 price ranges. The hotels listed are not based on a recommendation by the organisers but a sample of the options available. The prices provided may vary depending on the date of the booking or platform used.
