Background

The Expert Workshop held on September 10–11, 2025, in Brussels, Belgium, brought together senior managers, probation practitioners, criminal justice professionals such as lawyers and prosecutors from across Europe as well as representatives of the European Commission, Academy of European Law and European Judicial Network to discuss the advancements in the implementation of Framework Decisions 2008/947/JHA and 2009/829/JHA. Hosted at the Houses of Justice, the CEP Expert Workshop served as a dynamic platform for mutual learning, collaboration, and strategic planning.

The programme covered a broad spectrum of expertise and experience taking into account national, cross-border experience combining practitioner-level insights and operational tools with systemic recommendations and institutional coordination. Gerry McNally and Mirka Jakesova (CEP) presented shared findings from the 9th Round of Mutual Evaluation and preliminary findings of CEP survey. Chiara Fiorillo from the DG Justice and Consumers shared updates and priorities from the European Commission. Presentations from the Netherlands, Latvia, and Romania illustrated diverse experiences with implementing the Framework Decisions, including successes and challenges while Irish representatives showcased their solution-oriented approaches. The updates from EJM as well as updates on ERA and EMRPO projects were shared by Natalia Ratajczak, Ramin Farinpour and Daniel Danglades.

Experts from Ireland, the Netherlands, Germany, Latvia, and Spain explored trust-building across jurisdictions, emphasizing cultural, legal, and operational nuances in the interactive roundtable. Solution-oriented approach was addressed in the group sessions with participants drafting the action plan on successful implementation of Framework Decisions within their respective organisations. Last but not least, CEP presented newly updated flyer and guide for Framework Decisions.

The workshop underscored the importance of mutual trust, shared learning, and coordinated implementation of EU justice policies. Participants left with renewed commitment and actionable insights to enhance cross-border probation and judicial cooperation.

Interactive sessions included the roundtable with a prosecutor, senior manager and practitioners discussing the answers from the round of “speed introduction” answering the two things participants want to change or do to make things better for 947 and 829.

The overview of some answers (for more see attached the photo):

- 1) How to deal with cases when clients do not comply with a transfer which is regarded necessary.
- 2) How can we oblige competent authorities to engage on an application. No consequences for not responding.
- 3) Enhance trust between MS (including among judges, prosecutors etc) and how to involve them.
- 4) Inclusion of life-sentenced persons.
- 5) Contact points (including shared FAQ or common email address to share specific queries in real time) and increased knowledge regarding practices in probation service.

Next interactive session included work group sessions that built on previously identified problems, explored practical, realistic solutions for 947 and 829, and engaged participants in shaping next steps.

Participants were asked to develop a plan taking into account:

- ✓ Must Have (to be implemented as soon as possible)
- ✓ Good to Have (valuable improvements that do not need to be done now but in the foreseeable future)
- ✓ Nice to Have (something beneficial but not essential at this point)

Key takeaways:

- Reaching out with our know-how supporting all when it comes to project and other initiatives.
- Champion who takes responsibility and leadership in each jurisdiction.
- Sharing and partnerships across jurisdictions, also across Europe, encourage local countries to get in touch.
- Being active, sharing info with next door neighbour but also with this group.

Actions

- 1) Publish the report.
- 2) Online event in between – spring 2026 (more information shared via email).
- 3) F2f event – will be specified – in September 2026 the ERA has a seminar on the FDs in Bucharest.
